I agree with the proposals, however, the naming of the new division is flawed.

The proposals currently state "we believe the name Haresfield & Upton St Leonards (the two largest population centres)" for the new proposed division. I want to point out that if Hunts Grove is included in this new division, then it is by far the largest population centre - yet excluded from the division name.

Haresfield has less than 400 electors. Hunts Grove has over 3,000 electors!
