I think that the boundary for Tankerton is too small, it should include the area known as South Tankerton, Clover Rise and that part, and certainly should include All Saints Church, Ham Shades Lane, and around there the other side of the railway line.

I've lived in Tankerton almost all my life, and those parts are certainly considered part of this district. The local infrastructure, including All Saints, with its hall and the nursery school there, as well as Church St playing field are essential to our community.
