

Canterbury

Personal Details:

Name: [REDACTED]
Email: [REDACTED]
Postcode: [REDACTED]
Organisation Name: [REDACTED] (Member of the public)

Comment text:

Related subject: Blean Forest and Chartham and Stone Street

I do not understand why the two houses on the West of Palmars Cross Hill are in a different ward called Chartham and Stone Street, while the rest of Rough Common is in Blean Forest.

It separates these two properties from the rest of Rough Common - why? Surely the number of people living in each ward is not so critical that these two houses must be excluded from the area they are in?

Attached Documents:

None attached