The revised proposals for divisions in Elmbridge does not meet the previous objections. Under these revised proposals, it seems that the Oxshott Village Halls will not be in the same division as the majority of Oxshott, which is a nonsense. Oxshott Station, the Crown Estate and Fair Oak Lane are similarly excluded. Oxshott is a distinct entity, broadly bounded by the A3 to the north and the bridge over the railway on Blundel Lane to the West. To dismember it in the way proposed does not reflect reality. Why is this change needed? Surely we should have moved on from officials drawing arbitrary lines on maps such as happened with the partition of India.
