At the present time the Alsager Cheshire East Ward Boundaries are unclear.

The current Boundary zig zags across Close Lane to the west of Alsager.

To the east of Alsager the Boundary cuts across many estate roads on the Twyford former factory estate.

The Town Council supports the new recommendations with aligns the Alsager Ward with the Alsager Town Parish Boundary and East and West Parish Wards.

This will lead to the Ward Boundary will be clearer with natural boundaries of the M6 and the A511.

The whole Twyford Estate will be in the Alsager Ward and the natural boundary will be These are my draft thoughts with regard to our meeting tomorrow about the Boundary review:

At the moment the Alsager Cheshire East Ward Boundaries are unclear.

The current Boundary zig zags across Close Lane to the west of Alsager.

To the east of Alsager the Boundary cuts across many estate roads on the Twyford former factory estate.

The Town Council supports the new recommendations with aligns the Alsager Ward with the Alsager Town Parish Boundary and East and West Parish Wards.

Also the Ward Boundary will be clearer.

The whole Twyford Estate will be in the Alsager Ward and the Boundary between the Alsager and Haslington Wards will be the M6.
