Related subject: Westgate-on-Sea Ward

As a former resident of Hockeredge Gardens CT8 8AN, I strongly believe that Hockeredge Gardens together with neighbouring roads of Essex Road and Queens Road (all in the CT8 post code area) should be returned to Westgate-on-Sea Ward from Westbrook Ward. When the boundary change was made in the early 2000s, it made little difference. However, the creation of Westgate-on-Sea Town Council in 2015 has made that boundary change seem a nonsense. I am aware that the 3 roads mentioned are in the ecclesiastical parish of St James, Westgate-on-Sea, but would argue that has little impact on residents whereas it seems ridiculous to live in Westgate-on-Sea and not come under the jurisdiction of the town's council
