

VALE OF WHITE HORSE

December 2024

NEW ELECTORAL ARRANGEMENTS

Currently there are:

- 38 councillors
- 24 wards
- 14 two-member and 10 single-member

47 residents and organisations helped shape our recommendations

We aim to make sure Vale of White Horse councillors represent a similar number of electors

From elections in 2027:

- 39 councillors
- 21 wards
- 4 three-member, 10 two-member, 7 single-member

Currently there are:

- Six wards that are more than 10% away from the average number of electors per ward
- No wards that are more than 30% away from the average

Vale of White Horse will move towards:

- No wards being more than 10% away from the average number of electors per ward
- Each councillor representing an average of 3,109 electors
