TO WHOM IT MAY CONCERN

Its important that Eldwick remain as it is What benefit could there possibly be to join Eldwick and Baildon it's not like the villages are next to each other - we have Baildon moor to separate us and no public transport to connect us

Would this mean children in Eldwick would have to go to school in Baildon and if so what possible benefit could this be - again no bus service

Please tell us this is not actually going to be for serious consideration hopefully there will be plenty of opposition I'm seriously at a loss as to think why anyone would think this could work or be a good idea

Regards
