To whom it may concern

We understand there are further proposals to split our village into two in respect of local council ward. This would mean half the village in the Baildon ward. We have lived in Eldwick since 1987.

This would be ridiculous and non sensical as there is a large moor between Eldwick and Baildon - we are not connected in any way so how would a councillor be able to serve the interests of two communities? Eldwick has also always been part of Bingley - how could it suddenly then be part of either Baildon or Bingley town councils if you had a split ward?

In conclusion we strongly object to Eldwick being split between Bingley and Baildon - it should remain in the Bingley Ward [REDACTED]
