I would prefer that Dinnington Village returns to the county of Northumberland. The old boundaries worked perfectly well, this area does not need more politicians living off our backs. We don't need Mayors or Crime Commissioners, waste of public money. We have had a "Newcastle Half Marathon" forced on us, with no consultation with the villagers. We are being made prisoners in our own homes for 4 hours on July 14th. Is this democracy? I would prefer less councillors/politicians.
