Related subject: South Jesmond

I think this is an extremely bad idea. South Jesmond shares cultural and economic links to Jesmond rather than the transient student dominated population of Ouseburn. It is not clear if the electoral roll in Ouseburn is correct and even Ouseburn councilors share this view. Although the Ouseburn is a natural demarcation line for a boundary, South Jesmond is on the Jesmond side of the boundary and therefore the existing ward should remain
