Related subject: Jesmond Vale

I disagree strongly with the proposal to move Jesmond Vale into Ouseburn and Shieldfield Ward.

This proposal seems to be based on the (in my view) entirely false assumption at paragraph 107 of the report that the boundary of Jesmond is the A1058 coast road.

I've lived in Jesmond Vale for around 30 years. If Jesmond Vale is administratively detached from the rest of Jesmond, I (and probably most of the rest of the Vale's residents) will find myself using all the facilities of a different ward. All the shops, dentist, doctors, and other facilities I use are on the other side of the Coast Road. I walk almost daily into Jesmond to one or other of its facilities/shops and very rarely to the proposed new ward of Ouseburn and Shieldfield.

I realise the Coast Road may look like a boundary, to support the paragraph 107 assumption, but for someone living in Jesmond Vale, I assure you it in no way makes me feel outside Jesmond.

I believe therefore it is essential for Jesmond Vale to remain, administratively, with the rest of Jesmond.
