Related subject: Sherburn-in elmet

Sherburn has grown in recent years and this commision could end up splitting sherburn to such an extent that parts would not be suitably represented by the elected represtative as they would not be in the sherburn electrorial area, this splitting of sherburn could create a division within this community, it would be possible for recreational facilities to be placed outside of sherburn in what is proposed to be a rural division. I therefore do not agree with the proposals put forward and alternative way should be found to better equalise electoral numbers.
